Foreword

Embracing the boundless universal love, the term 'Amma' resonates with the purest form of unconditional love. My amma dared to dream not for herself but for her sons, igniting our own dreams and guiding us toward reaching our full potential.

Achan, a pillar of strength and mentor to many, serving not only as my unwavering support but also as a mentor for many seeking wisdom. Together, my parents paved the way for my artistic voyage, reflecting both Amma's fervor and Achan's aspirations.

In humble tribute to Amma and Achan, and as a celebration of the world of music, we initiated the annual music festival 'Soukumaryam' in 2021, a modest offering in honor of Amma's memory. This year, I'm thrilled to introduce 'MadhuSoukumaryam 2023,' a three-day musical celebration dedicated to the cherished memory of my beloved Amma, the late Smt. Sukumari Amma, and Achan, the late Sri. Madhusoodhan Nair.

Mark your calendars from 11th to 13th November, 2023. Join us for a captivating musical experience to celebrate and embrace the joy of music together.

Day 1

11 November

MADHUSAUKUMARYAM
MUSIC FESTIVAL

6.45pm | Inaugural Ceremony

7 pm | Carnatic Vocal Duet Concert

Ranjani Gayatri

Ranjani and Gayatri are sisters who perform as a Carnatic vocal and violin duo. Their musical talents were discovered at a very early age. Gayatri could identify over a hundred ragas when she was barely two and a half years and Ranjani could delineate complex rhythm patterns at age five. They have also appeared as soloists, accompanists, composers, and educators of Indian Classical Music. Their work includes studio recordings, television, radio, live concerts and lecture demonstrations.

Day 2

12 November

MADHUSAUKUMARYAM
MUSIC FESTIVAL

6.45pm | Violin Duet Concert

Lalgudi GJR Krishnan & Lalgudi Vijayalakshmi

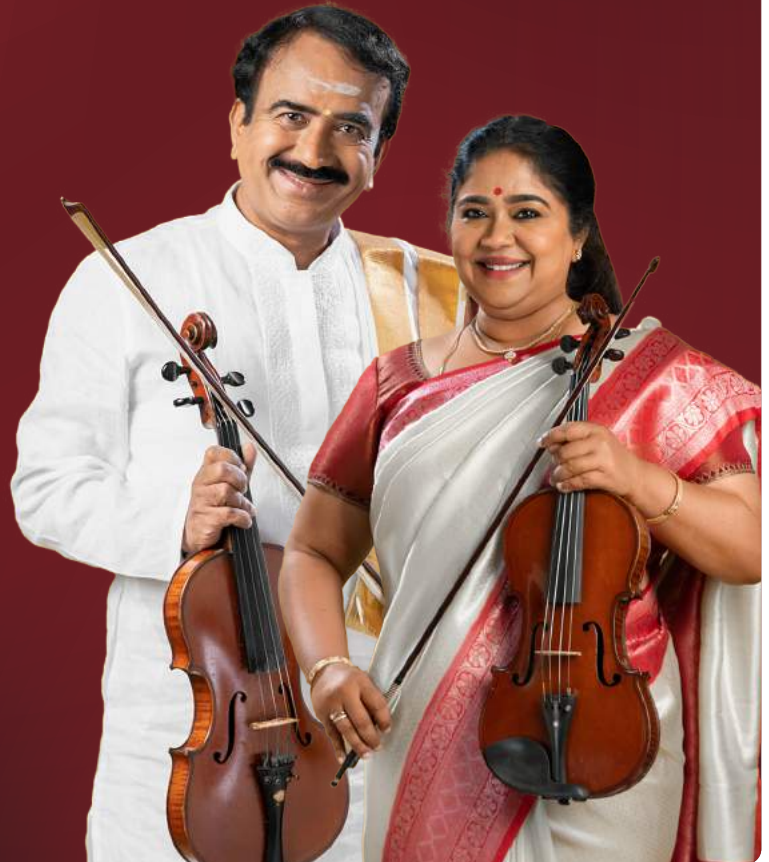

Lalgudi G.J.R. Krishnan and Lalgudi Vijayalakshmi, are fifth-generation musicians, the most authentic guardians and torchbearers of the illustrious Lalgudi bani. It is truly an advantage for them that their father, the iconic Lalgudi G. Jayaraman, has been their guru. Born and raised in an atmosphere where everyone lived, breathed, discussed music and violin, Krishnan and Viji, as they are popularly known, naturally imbibed every bit of what needed to be learnt.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

6.45 pm | Carnatic Vocal Concert

Kunnakkudi Balamuralikrishna

Kunnakkudi M. Balamuralikrishna has evolved into a talented young vocal artist, popular with rasika-s and sabha organisers alike. A relative of the late violin maestro Kunnakkudi Vaidyanathan, Bala's paternal grandfather, Ramanatha Sastri was, besides being a 'vaidika', a musician who performed over AIR-Tiruchi. His father Meenakshisundaram is also a musician. The musical ambience at home, sound training from his teachers, a robust voice, hard work and peer pressure have ensured that Balamuralikrishna is among the leading young musicians of today.
